

CARDIFF CASTLE
CASTELL CAERDYDD

— WEDDINGS / PRIODASAU —

A bride and groom are walking away from the camera on a green lawn. The groom is on the left, wearing a dark suit, and the bride is on the right, wearing a white wedding dress and a long veil. They are holding hands. In the background is a large, multi-story stone castle with many windows and towers. The sky is a pale, hazy color, suggesting dawn or dusk. In the top right corner, there is a white rectangular box containing the text "Welcome Croeso".

With high ceilings and atmospheric lighting, this room is unrivalled and provides a spectacular setting for your wedding and wedding breakfast. It is the largest room in the Castle Apartments and the decoration is typical of the genius- architect Burges' flamboyant style, who along with the 3rd Marquess of Bute transformed Cardiff Castle into a Welsh Victorian Camelot.

An elegant contrast to the highly ornate library, the Georgian Drawing Room dates from the 1770s and is light and spacious with magnificent views of the Castle grounds and Norman Keep.

The Undercroft Yr Is-grofft

Dating from the 15th century, the Undercroft is one of the oldest parts of the Castle. In the late 19th century the room was restored by the Marquesses of Bute and was known as 'The Servants' Hall'. Here members of the household would take their meals in strict order of precedence.

The stone-vaulted Undercroft is hugely atmospheric, decorated with hanging banners and drapes. It can be used for all aspects of your wedding, from the ceremony to the wedding breakfast, buffet or dance. It also has its own private bar and reception area.

The Undercroft is licensed for weddings and civil partnerships.

Mae'r Is-grofft, sy'n dyddio o'r 15fed ganrif, yn un o rannau hynaf y Castell. Cafodd yr ystafell ei hadfer ar ddiwedd y 19eg ganrif gan yr Ardalydd Bute ac fe'i gelwid yn 'Neuadd y Gweision'. Yma byddai aelodau o'r tŷ yn cael eu prydau yn nhrefn pwysigrwydd.

Mae'r Is-grofft, a'i fwâu o gerrig, yn ystafell hynod atmosfferig gyda llenni a baneri crog. Gellir ei ddefnyddio ar gyfer pob rhan o'ch priodas, o'r seremoni i'r brecwast priodas, bwffe neu ddawns. Mae ganddo far preifat ac ardal derbyniad.

Mae'r Is-grofft wedi'i drwyddedu i gynnal priodasau a phartneriaethau sifil.
